BILL LOWERY reported on a meeting he had attended on 2/5/60 at a Negro church at Oakland and Forest.. He said those attending this meeting had met to form an organization which will run a candidate in the coming Dallas School Board elections. They planned to enter their candidate at the very last minute thus avoiding publicity and perhaps keeping the opposition from entering another Negro candidate to split the Negro vote. He said this group planned to meet again on the 17th or 19th of February at the same place. He was invited to this meeting by ELWOOD ROSS.
